Team-Friendly (Think Disney Plus) Based on some of the redesigns from the new Marvel shows and movies, it looks like Marvel is learning a thing or two from Netflix in terms of easy design. Team-Friendly (Think YouTube) Imagine if YouTube were to compete in the way that Disney+ is. Team-Friendly (Think Netflix) Watching a Netflix Marvel show feels a little bit like binge-watching an episode of one of their stand-alone movies. They show up together as part of a whole, but you can easily pick and choose from different stories. Team-Friendly (Think CBS) This is the look of "CBS All Access", which is the same as the look of CBS with its CBS app, and the same as CBS and Showtime's apps. Team-Friendly (Think Hulu) Hulu's existing design is pretty appealing as well. Hulu now feels like an extension of the content it delivers. Team-Friendly (Think HBO) HBO's app looks like HBO.com itself. Team-Friendly (Think Amazon Prime) We're not sure if we'd say that Amazon Prime has ever been a team-friendly platform. But it does look like something you'd find as an extension of the product itself. Team-Friendly (Think Playstation) Have you ever wondered what the PlayStation looks like? If you watched a special feature called "The World of PlayStation", this would be what you saw. Team-Friend 6d1f23a050
